SCARECROW HUNT

Fall is here, and the Alleman Park & Rec Committee wants to see your creativity! Decorate your yard with a scarecrow and dress it up in a fun or festive outfit—or make it part of your fall landscape. There are still a few scarecrows at City Hall looking for a home. Adopt one, get creative, and show us what you've got!

Don't forget to take a photo and share it on the Alleman Facebook page. We can't wait to see those creative scarecrows popping up around town!

NORTH POLK HOMECOMING PARADE: Friday, September 18 | 1:15 p.m.

Alleman is excited to once again host the North Polk Homecoming Parade! Several streets around the middle school and Uptown will be closed from noon to 2:00 p.m. for the parade. Grab a lawn chair, bring the family, and come cheer on the North Polk students and athletes! The public is welcome and encouraged to attend.

COMMUNITY HOLIDAY DÉCOR SWAP:

Saturday, October 24 | 10:00 a.m. | Alleman City Hall

Give your holiday decorations a second life! Bring your gently used decorations and swap them for something new to you.

Decorations from any holiday are welcome. There is no specific number of items required to participate, and the number of items you take home is not limited or tied to the number you bring. It's free, fun, and eco-friendly—and a great way for our community to share a little holiday cheer!

Holiday Light Recycling: The city will also be accepting broken or non-working holiday lights for recycling on this day.
